Attorney Cliff Rieders has been granted 2020 AV Preeminent Rating, which encompasses both legal and ethical considerations. Martindale-Hubbell is the authority in attorney reviews and ratings. For 150 years these ratings have been used to help people identify, evaluate and select the most appropriate representation. This recognition is the highest possible rating in both legal ability and ethical standards. The rating system responds to the need for individuals and lawyers to find attorneys who meet the highest qualifications. The “Preeminent” portion of the rating is yet an enhancement over the qualities encompassed by the AV designation. Cliff Rieders is a partner in the law firm of Rieders, Travis, Humphrey, Waters & Dohrmann, and is a nationally Board Certified Trial Lawyer admitted in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, New York State, and the District of Columbia. Rieders is also admitted to numerous federal courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States. He clerked for the Honorable Malcolm Muir, and has served as a Past President of the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association, now called the Pennsylvania Association for Justice. He is also a Past President of the Federal Bar Association for the Central Pennsylvania region. The attorney is also a life member of the prestigious American Law Institute, and is a well-known author and speaker in the legal field.
